

DISCOVERIES

In the age of texts and tweets, embrace the sophistication of a handwritten note with Montblanc's Meisterstück 149, one of the special-edition fountain pens created for the 90th anniversary of the company's flagship line. Crafted of black resin, it is accented with red-gold trim and an 18K-red-gold nib; $935. montblanc.com, 800-995-4810

Ferran-New York's Americana collection of decorative pillows in summery cotton prints borrows classic patterns from mid-19th-century quilts and Native American textiles. Clockwise from top left are the Saltillo design in violet/saffron, the Dakota in violet/saffron, and the Mesa in denim. The 20"-sq. cushions also come in a 12" x 24" version and in other colors; from $125 each. ferranstore.com, 212-865-1303

Jonathan Adler's shimmering midcentury-style Talitha side table, from a collection that also features a console cabinet and cocktail table, channels the charm and craftsmanship of Indian metal-clad furniture. Made of wood sheathed in nickel-plated steel, the piece measures 26" sq. x 22" h. and costs $1,495. jonathanadler.com, 800-963-0891

With his Runway range of bath accessories for Labrazel, AD100 designer Jamie Drake shares his obsession with gutsy graphics. The bold black-and-white pieces, fashioned of reverse-painted glass mounted on wood, include a wastebasket ($315), soap dispenser ($160), and lidded box ($105); additional items are available. labrazelhome.com, 860-232-6300

It takes a skilled Uzbek artisan three months to stitch the intricate motifs on each of Strigo's embroidered throws. The approximately 57" x 65" silk-and-cotton blankets come in a variety of colors and designs. The Sena pattern in lemon, pictured, is $4,500 at Barneys. barneys.com, 212-826-8900

